ILLINOIS WOMEN'S INSTITUTE FOR LEADERSHIP

Training a new generation of Illinois leaders

IWIL CLASS OF 2010

Laura Fletcher, Paula A. Basta, MaryMargaret Maule, Stephanie Faraci, Dhyia Thompson, Tracey Glenn, Anita Banerji, Judith Nelson, Nyota T. Figgs, Jennifer Bishop-Jenkins, Wendy Walker Williams, Anne I. Shaw.

IWIL is a 501C4 not-for-profit program that selects and trains twelve qualified women each year to run for and serve in elective office in Illinois. Applicants are accepted beginning in August with results announced in early December. Seven training programs are conducted from February through August. Sessions focus on fundraising, public speaking, message development, ethics, media and more. The program relies on the annual fundraiser for the financial support necessary to conduct the sessions at little or no cost to the participants.
